NE WAZA (MAT WORK) DIVISION

Players will begin from standing position.

All take downs where the Uke lands on their side, or back will count as a waza-ari

Waza-ari do not add up

Only way to score an Ippon is to cause the opponent to submit to a Choke or Arm Lock:

Judo Rules apply to the legality of the Chokes and Arm-Locks.

Leg Grabs will be permitted.

All other IJF Rules will apply. NO LEG LOCKS.

This includes Hansoku-Make or Disqualification.

Each player may receive 2 shido and continue in the match, the 3rd shido will result in Disqualification. Penalties will be given following the IJF rules with the exception of gripping. All unorthodox grips will be permitted. Gripping inside the sleeves will not be permitted (either hand or leg). If while in an unorthodox judogio grip there is no progression to a take down within 5 seconds the match will be stopped and restarted.

All matches will be 3 minutes long with Unlimited golden score.

Pins or Osaе-Waza will score 1 point (Waza-ari per 10 seconds, for a maximum of 2 points). If no progression to submission, the players will be returned to the standing position.

If no progression from the ground position into a pin, choke, or arm lock, then the players will be returned to the standing position.
